A pan of oil caught fire on the hob and the flames spread to the extractor hood. The kitchen units and ceiling are smoke damaged and need replacing. The fire service attended and put the fire out. I was asked whether anything similar had happened before, and it has not. The cost of temporary arrangements has been higher than I expected. We have had to move some furniture into storage while the rooms are empty. I have tried to keep the extra costs to a minimum while things are sorted out. I was asked whether anything similar had happened before, and it has not. I have kept a diary of every phone call and visit since the incident. One contractor said the work could take several weeks because of the drying time needed. I want to set out the full sequence of events so that nothing is missed. One contractor
